Losses In European War Felt the World Over

The terrible losses of the great war in Europe are occasionally brought home to people in this country through the death of relatives at the front. The following letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., tells of the death of the son of Mrs. McGilchrist's cousin, of a prominent family in Glasgow.

The letter is written from Kings Park, Glasgow and is as follows: "I grieve having to tell you of our great loss. Our dear brother Harry was killed in France (Saturday) the 15th at 1 a. m. we are informed by the chaplain. His letter is very comforting. We all think it a hard blow, but my dear mother is suffering most of all.

"When he came home on his last leave, just before he went to France, every person thought what a fine looking boy he was. He was out about seven months and died three days after his twenty-first birthday. He was the best boy that ever lived and he seemed to live for his mother. He was so kind to her.

"Please excuse this short note but my heart is too full of grief, I cannot write more."

A SALEM INTERVIEW

Mr. Brown Tells His Experience. The following brief account of an interview with a Salem man over ten years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

P. W. Brown, retired farmer, 1499 State street, Salem, says: "Hard work weakened my kidneys and I often felt the effect in lameness and soreness across the small of my back. Finally, my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got some from Dr. Stone's drug store. The backache and soreness entirely left me." (Statement given January 31, 1906.)

On April 11, 1916, Mr. Brown said: "I am ready to confirm any time what I said in my former statement regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. I still consider them a medicine of merit and they always do good work whenever I take them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Brown has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Wheat jumped from 3 3/4 cents to 4 1/8 cents in the Chicago grain market today. Bullish Canadian advices and reports of a short French crop sent shorts hurrying to cover. PRESIDENT DOES

A bitter fight in conference is expected when the new bill reaches that stage. At the time Chairman Hay added his revision of the articles of war, it was freely reported he wanted them so changed that General Frederick A. Ainsworth, former adjutant general of the army, now retired, could put before the country in book form, his side of the famous Leonard Wood-Ainsworth controversy.

Under existing rules of war, retired army officers and privates must regard the same rules criticism of the war department and fellow officers, as must active officers and men. The Hay revision exempts retired officers and men from court martials.

Experiments have indicated to House that it may become an important cotton-raising nation. Why the Journal is popular— it prints the world's news today.
